OBEO

PUBLICATION FOR CAPELLA
END USER TRAINING

Course Goals

• Learn how to use Publication for Capella as an end user (System Engineer or Requirements Engineer).

Our added value
The course is designed by the authors of Publication for Capella. Many hands-on exercises.

Duration: 3.5 hours (1 half day)
Audience: System Engineers, Requirements Engineers, Modeling Project Administrators.
Prerequisites: Basic knowledge of Capella and of a compatible ALM, PLM, or RMS tool. Knowledge of Team for Capella is not mandatory.

1 - Overview

• Introduction
• Concept Definitions
• Architecture Overview
• Web UI Overview
Duration: 45mn

2 - As a System Engineer in Capella

• Introduction
• Publishing Capella Models
• Understanding the Traceability Model
• Creating Links to Third-Party Artifacts
• Viewing Details of Third-Party Artifacts
• Updating from Publication Server
• Refreshing Third-Party Artifacts
• Advanced Publication Use-Cases
• Using Global Configuration
Exercises
• Publish a Model in a new Project.
• Modify the model a publish it again.
• Create some links and publish the changes.
• Delete links online and Update from Server.
Duration: 1h00

3 - As a System Engineer Online

• Login and Logout
• Workbench Overview
• Project Workbench
• Model Object Pages
• Search and Advanced Search
• Model History
• User Menu
Exercises:
• Browse Models online.
• Search for Model Elements using plain and advanced search.
• Add Traceability Links online.
• Observe and understand the History of the model and its elements.
Duration: 1h00

4 - As a Requirements Engineer

• Online - Traceability in Third-Party repositories
• Authenticating from a Friend Server
• Viewing Links in a Friend Server
• Creating/Deleting Links from a Friend Server
Duration: 20mn

5 - Product Roadmap

Duration: 10mn

6 - Questions and Answers

Duration: 15mn