OBEO

TEAM FOR CAPELLA
END USER TRAINING

Course Goals

Learn how to use Team for Capella as an end user (System Engineer):
- work in collaborative mode,
- understand the differences between a shared Capella project and a local Capella project,
- understand the usage of the lock mechanism used within Team for Capella,
- share/extract data to/from Team for Capella.

Our added value
The course is designed by the authors of Team for Capella. Many hands-on exercises.
Duration: 7 hours (1 day)
Audience: System Engineers, Modeling Project Administrators.
Prerequisites:
- Basic knowledge of Capella,
- A Team for Capella deployment accessible to participants.

1 - Overview
- Introduction to Team for Capella
- Concept definitions
- Architecture and deployment overview

Exercises
- Practial labs setup

Duration: 50mn

2 - End User – Getting Started
- Introduction
- Export a project to a Team for Capella server
- Import a project from a Team for Capella server
- Connect to the remote model
- Working on a remote model
- Team for Capella licenses
- Basic troubleshooting

Exercises
- Create a Team for Capella Connected Project
- Working with Team for Capella

Duration: 2h40

3 - End User – Advanced
- Commit descriptions and history
- Change management
- Client configuration
- Use images in remote models
- Working with libraries in a multi-user context
- Working with multiple repositories
- Team for Capella usage with Git

Exercises:
- Commit history and change management
- Working with images in remote models
- Demonstration of usage with Git.

Duration: 3h00

4 - Perspectives & Discussion
Duration: 30mn