

PUBLICATION FOR CAPELLA ADMINISTRATOR TRAINING

Course Goals

Learn how to administer Publication for Capella:

- On the Publication Server;
- On Third-Party Servers;
- In Capella.

Our added value

The course is designed by the authors of Publication for Capella. Many hands-on exercises.

Duration: 3.5 hours (1 half day)

Audience: System Engineers, Requirements Engineers, Modeling Project Administrators.

Prerequisites: Publication for Capella End-User Training. Basic knowledge of Capella and of a compatible ALM, PLM, or RMS tool. Knowledge of Team for Capella is not mandatory.

1 - Overview

- Involved Roles

Duration: 10mn

2 - Configuring the Publication Server

- OSLC Settings
- Global Configuration Settings
- Other Administrative Activities
- Server Settings

Exercises

- Associate servers as OSLC Friends
- Create Project to Project associations
- Allow links between Logical Functions and Requirements

Duration: 1h15

3 - Configuring Third-Parties for Publication for Capella

- Configuring IBM Engineering Lifecycle Management
- Configuring Polarion
- Configuring Jama Connect
- Configuring CodeBeamer
- Configuring Jira
- Configuring Confluence

Duration: 30mn

4 - Configuring Third-Parties for Publication for Capella

- Configuring Publication Server(s)
- System Options
- Configuring Friend Artifact URLs
- Configuring Link Types with Link Ranges
- Import/Export Publication Settings
- Global Configuration

Exercises

- Configure a new Capella environment from scratch
- Allow different types of links between different types of model elements
- Export the configuration and reimport it in a different model

Duration: 1h15

5 - Questions and Answers

Duration: 20mn